Whether you're reading aloud, exploring pictures together, or your child is interacting with the book in their own way—every book counts! It's a wonderful way to build early literacy skills and spark a lifelong love of reading. The goal is simple: make reading aloud part of your daily routine and let the magic of stories do the rest.

For every 100 books your child reads, listens to, or looks through, they'll earn a sticker for their reading log and a free book to keep. Once they complete all 1,000 books, they'll receive a certificate and a special prize to celebrate their achievement!
