Love and Forgiveness Book Discussions

Copies of the books are available at the Service Desk.

Tuesday, May 11 at 7 p.m.

Dr. Linda Burke will lead the discussion of "A Passage to India" by

E. M. Forster. This beautifully written novel tells a story of two women who come to India, and their lack of understanding of the culture causes one of them to make an unjust accusation.

Tuesday, June 8 at 7 p.m.

Dr. Linda Burke will lead the discussion of "Cry the Beloved Country" by Alan Paton. In this award winning novel a South African pastor travels to Johannesburg in search of his family members. What he finds is that his sister is a prostitute, his brother is a labor protestor, and his son has been arrested for murder.

Wood Dale Adult Book Club Tuesday, May 18, at 7:30 p.m.

"Olive Kitteridge" by Elizabeth Strout will be discussed. At the edge of the continent, in the small town of Cosby, Maine, lives Olive Kitteridge, a retired schoolteacher who deplores the changes in her town and in the world at large but doesn't always recognize the changes in those around her. Copies of the book are available at the Service Desk.

The next meeting will be September 21, 2010.

Author Visit: Gail Lukasik - Tuesday, May 25 at 7 p.m.

Gail Lukasik, author of "Destroying Angels" and "Death's Door" will come to present her literary, suspenseful, and entertaining mysteries. Come and get hooked on the series featuring Leigh, Chicago native, college teacher and Wisconsin newspaper reporter, as she investigates murder mysteries and puts herself in deadly danger.

Key: Refreshments will be served.

All Library Programs are no charge unless otherwise noted.

Registration is required for all Library programs unless otherwise noted. Register online at www.wooddalelibrary.org, by visiting the Library or by calling 630-766-6762.

Summer Reading Program @ Wood Dale Public Library 2010 June 1— July 30

Registration Begins Tuesday, June 1 at 1:00 p.m.

Get ready for this summer's reading program "Devour A Book" @ the Wood Dale Public Library. Materials to register will be available on the tables in the youth department. Please register for individual programs online at www.wooddalelibrary.org on or after June 1.

Readers will keep track of the time spent reading by coloring in a box on their reading log for every 15 minutes that they read, or that they read to anyone else. Readers will record one title read for each hour turned in. If you read more than one picture book in a given hour, you can choose your favorite. If you are reading chapter books, it is okay to put the same title down several ~~times~~ <sup>times</sup>. That time,

Many special programs are scheduled for summer readers and their families at the library.

Thursday nights are Family Entertainment Nights at the library.

Wood Dale Public Library staff will be working in the school library at Westview during summer school again this year.

REGISTER ONLINE

Register for these optional programs online at www.wooddalelibrary.org by following the events/program tab to the calendar. Click on the programs you are interested in and fill in the required information. Registration is limited for most of the programs, so be sure to register early!

All of the summer reading programs are for summer reading program participants and their families.

Family Entertainment Night @ Wood Dale Public Library 2010

GETTING EXCITED ABOUT SCIENCE Thursday, May 20 at 7 p.m.

Steve Belliveau presents a science show that everyone will be talking about! Steve's show inspires students to get involved in science themselves.

His dramatic demonstrations include humor, music and audience participation. We'll watch first hand as he demonstrates basic ideas about air/water pressure, magnetism & electricity, friction, chemistry, simple machines, conservation of energy, and more.

TRULY REMARKABLE LOON Thursday June 10 at 7 p.m.

Truly Remarkable Loon has been performing as a comedic juggler for more than thirty years.

Truly Remarkable Loon
Read Books and Juggle Everything Else

In his library show "Read Books and Juggle Everything Else," Loon promotes books, reading and libraries while he juggles and balances everything else: clubs, balls, a mongoose, scarves, sports equipment, spinning plates, and giant bean bag chairs!

The best thing about the show is its very wide audience appeal. Children and adults alike are amused, amazed and entertained.

BAREFOOT HAWAIIANS Thursday June 17 at 7 p.m.

Barefoot Hawaiians perform various forms of Polynesian, Hawaiian, and Tahitian dance as well as the specialty dances of neighboring islands. Each performance and act in the show is a choreographed dance routine synchronized to carefully selected and performed music.

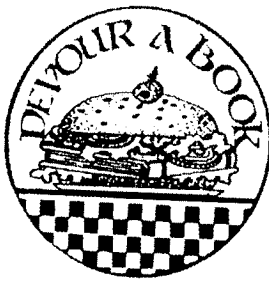

To keep the variety fresh, this show is completely redone every year for our general performance shows. Each year receives new dance routines, new choreography, new production numbers, and new music (except for retaining the highly requested favorites). In short, it's a new show every year.

AMAZING ACRO-CATS FEATURING THE ROCK-CATS Thursday, June 24 at 7 p.m.

The amazing Acro-Cats is a show that doesn't fit into any other CAT-egory. It's Chicago's only trained domestic cat show!

Our fantastic felines will amuse and amaze you as they ride skateboards, ring bells, roll barrels, walk the high wire, climb ropes, push a shopping cart, jump through hoops and even run a cat-sized agility course.

Family Entertainment Night @ Wood Dale Public Library 2010

DAVE RUDOLF'S BEACH PARTY! Thursday, July 1 at 7 p.m.

Dave's beach party program is a totally interactive music concert with hula hooping, bubble machines, and limboing.

This concert features Dave's original music as well as some "Fun in the Sun" songs such as "Hot, Hot, Hot" and "Sonora".

Dave brings the hula hoops, and music, you bring the dance moves and bubble popping enthusiasm! Check out Dave's CD's here at the Library!

DENNIS DEBONDT VERY FUNNY MAGIC Thursday, July 8 at 7 p.m.

Amazing - Hilarious -
Dynamic - Inspiring -
Great Messages -
How could you
miss this show!?

There will be loads of laughs and a summer reader may even float in the air (do you dare volunteer?)

Dennis may even inspire you to check out some books on magic from the Library — after all that's how he started!

CHICAGO COSSACKS RUSSIAN MUSIC AND DANCE Thursday, July 15 at 7 p.m.

The Chicago Cossacks will perform Russian, Cossack, Ukrainian and Gypsy dances. They will be accompanied by authentic music performed on Russian Folk instruments including the Domra and Bayan. Join us for this truly authentic experience.

MARK DVORAK OLD SONGS & NEW PEOPLE Thursday, July 22 at 7 p.m.

Mark Dvorak is a charismatic performer who lifts his voice in celebration of the old songs we all remember. He captures the attention of young audiences and draws them in with participation songs, sing-alongs and action songs. His mix of songs is a wonderful blend of traditional, funny and nonsense - perfect for a family outing this summer.

SCALES & TAILS Thursday, July 29 at 7 p.m.

Animal lovers will delight in this program which will entertain and educate with live encounters with exotic animals.

Watch an owl fly overhead in the meeting room. See a sixteen year-old sloth sway upsidedown.

Audience size is limited, so register early. If this event fills up, an earlier presentation may be added.
