September is National Library Card Sign Up month. Make sure your students have a successful school year by getting them a Wood Dale library card. It's easy to sign up! Come into the library for a physical card or go online at www.wooddalelibrary.org to get a digital card that allows you to access all of the Library's online resources.

A library card connects you to all of the Wood Dale Library's different collections of online resources, including Consumer Reports, eBooks, book recommendations, and more. Specifically for students, young Wood Dale cardholders now have access to 16 new online resources designed to help with research and homework projects.

MasterFILE™ Complete

Master File Complete is a collection of full text articles from magazines, academic journals, reference books and primary documents. This database also includes images, videos, maps and more! A great starting place for any research project.

Middle Search®
Plus

Middle Search Plus focuses on material for middle school students, including full text articles from magazines, newspapers and more. There are also pictures and videos designed for use by middle school students.

Points of View Reference Center™

Points of View Reference Center is a resource for students designed to help develop critical thinking skills. It includes articles, essays, overviews and more on an extensive range of topics.

Primary Search®

Primary Search is a resource for primary school students, including articles and text from magazines, reference books and more, including Highlights and Scholastic news.

New Digital Library Card Sign-Up

Adults can sign up for a physical or digital library card, too! Sign up online or come into the library to get access to digital resources like eBooks, audiobooks, movie streaming and digital databases.

Go to www.wooddalelibrary.org and follow the link to Get a Library Card Online. You must be 13 or older to register.
