Sunday Closed

Stop by to see our new look and browse our collection for exciting new reads. Did you know your library card gives you access to thousands of materials including books, magazines and movies? You also have 24/7 access to your virtual library at home to stream videos, check out e-books or listen to audiobooks and music on the go!

Our Summer Reading Program rewards the whole family for achieving reading goals and participating in library events. Signing up is easy and free! Simply visit us online, call us, or sign up in person at the Library and start earning prizes today.

Adults, every item you check out or program you attend earns rewards. Receive a sign up prize after registration, a small gift after logging 10 items, and a gift certificate, made possible by Itasca Bank & Trust Co., for logging 20 items. Keep reading to earn raffle tickets for a grand prize drawing!

Kids, summer reading earns Brag Tags! Each reader will receive a ball chain necklace or key ring, one brag tag and one paperback book for the first five hours they read. Readers can continue to earn one brag tag and one paperback book for each additional five hours of reading.

Enjoy in-person and online programs at the Library this summer, including one-on-one STEM sessions for kids ages 4-12! Learn how to code robots, build with magnetic tiles and try out new Nintendo Switch Lites.

Virtual programs for children and adults are also available this summer. Visit our website at www.wooddalelibrary.org to register for programs and the summer reading program.
